About me

About me

My name is Marion Gillot, and I love design. I am passionate about creating unique and beautiful designs. My main objective is to provide effective visual solutions to help my clients achieve their marketing and communication goals.

As a second year MMI student, I have gained experience in video editing and document layout. I have developed expertise in branding, graphic design, web design and product design. I am able to work on projects ranging from logos, websites, advertising campaigns, packaging and branding.
